HOLIDAYS GAY FOR MANY DEBUTANTES

Katherine S. Browning Introduced.

DANCE FOR MISS ADEE HEMPEL IN TITLE ROLE

The holiday season still finds much to be done for debutantes, whose number this year is greater than ever. There was one coming out tea yesterday afternoon and several dances were given last night for them.

Miss Mary Irving Francke was introduced yesterday afternoon at Sherry's by her aunt, Mrs. Albert Francke, as her mother, Mrs. Lindsley Tappin, is in mourning. Miss Francke comes from dintinguished ancestry. Her grandfather, the late Daniel Huntington, was for many years president of the National Academy of Design, and she is a collateral descendant of Washington Irving. The reception was held in the small hallroom, and receiving with the debutante and her aunt were the Misses Porothy Greer, Anna Ratibone, Frederica Bull, Dorothea Camp, Ethel Simmons, Aluss De Veau, Marion Townsend, Isabel Stettinius, Mary Hartshorne, Hope Williams, Helen Alexander, Maryanna Lincoln, Geraldine Adee and Madeleine Carey. There was dancing throughout the afternoon.

The transfer tax appraisal of the estate of Mrs. Augusta Chapin, who died January 31, 1914, the widow of Josiah L. A large part of this amount went to charities and public institutions.

Mrs. Chapin left $13,500 outright and a trust fund of $5,000 to her friend Mrs. Suzanne G. Hammond.
